

INDEPENDENT PARTY HAS HEADQUARTERS.

THEIR NOTE OF DISCORD

Organization has Two Factions

With Bob Wilcox Leader of the Biggest.

Independent party this week secured rooms of the New Land Hotel, adjoining the Post Office building, for their permanent headquarters. The rooms were recently occupied as a hotel.

One of the leaders of the party, Mr. Wilcox, may be found there every day. Mr. K. Kaula, also is a member of the party. The friends of the independent party are flocking to the movement whenever opportunity offers.

The Independent party is very conservative. The recording secretary of the party, a list of the names of the members is kept, showing also the different islands on which the voters reside. As the party is systematized, any person who is not a member of the party is not allowed to vote. The independent badge is worn at a moment's notice by members of the headquarters.

Members of the club are working to get the party may know the party. Almost every supporter of the home rule project is furnished with a "pamphlet" directing the party to work as hard as possible to get the standard of the club.

Mr. Wilcox, who has been absent from the city about a month making a tour of the islands as well as in behalf of his party, is expected to return. According to the independent party, he may have reached the city either last Wednesday, September 10th, or the following day. In any event, he will be able to call on the party and catch the Kinu for home.

It is a certainty that "Bob" will be met with much enthusiasm by his friends here. It is presumed he will be met at the headquarters and will be seated in a chair at the headquarters.

WILCOX TO WILCOX.

One of the advantages of nominating Wilcox, last evening's Independent, the following editorial article:

The independent party should nominate Wilcox as delegate to Congress. Wilcox will make a grievous mistake. Wilcox is no longer a representative of the Hawaiian people, and those who vote for him will do so out of revenge on the party which nominated him. Wilcox is not a representative of the Hawaiian people, and those who vote for him will do so out of revenge on the party which nominated him.

Mr. Wilcox has been a good point in his favor, but he is not a representative of the Hawaiian people, and those who vote for him will do so out of revenge on the party which nominated him.

Mr. Wilcox is not a representative of the Hawaiian people, and those who vote for him will do so out of revenge on the party which nominated him.

Mr. Wilcox is not a representative of the Hawaiian people, and those who vote for him will do so out of revenge on the party which nominated him.

NOT ALL ANTI-HAOLE.

Independent also says:

One of the time the Republican party threw out feelers in regard to the Democratic party. The party is to make the most favorable impression, which haven't a lot of behind them, and then wait for a response which will be something. The fact is that the party and their friends among the Democrats are working quietly, but not in a hurry. Mr. Wilcox is not a representative of the Hawaiian people, and those who vote for him will do so out of revenge on the party which nominated him.

Mr. Wilcox is not a representative of the Hawaiian people, and those who vote for him will do so out of revenge on the party which nominated him.

Mr. Wilcox is not a representative of the Hawaiian people, and those who vote for him will do so out of revenge on the party which nominated him.

Mr. Wilcox is not a representative of the Hawaiian people, and those who vote for him will do so out of revenge on the party which nominated him.

INDEPENDENT FACTIONS.

There are two factions in the native party, and the one represented by the Independent newspaper, though the party is the smallest number. The original idea of the party came from F. J. Testa, J. H. Carter and others in Honolulu, in 1902. Carter to Congress, J. H. Carter to the majority of Honolulu, and the list until all available names had been listed. Testa was a much anti-haole as he could get. J. H. Carter in the deal with Testa Wilcox came back from Honolulu, and the situation suddenly changed. "Bob" did not consult with Testa. Instead, he announced that he was a candidate for Congress.

Registration Snag.

The registration snag which A. V. Gear discovered Thursday evening caused considerable comment on the streets yesterday. Not more than twenty-five voters are affected by it and it is expected that most of these will be able to register again or be passed on their first certificates. As the difference in time from now on until the election is so short, a matter of less than two months, it is expected that quite a number who are now disqualified by reason of lack of sufficient residence, will by October 10 be within the requirements of the law.

Clubs Keep Open House.

Both the Healanis and Myrtles will keep open house to-day and they invite all of their friends to their club houses at the harbor to view the races. Solomon's Quintette club will furnish music for dancing at the Healanis's place and there will be music at the Myrtle club house also. Refreshments will be served at both clubs at noon.

A SALVATION ARMY CONFERENCE

New Officers Arrive to Take Command of Hilo Post.

The China brought among her passengers some reinforcements for the Salvation Army, the new arrivals being Captain and Mrs. Gillett. For years they have worked in the northern Pacific States, Washington, Oregon and Montana, but their last appointment on the Mainland was in California, at Chico, where they had very good success.

They come to take command of the Army's work in Hilo, the present incumbents there being under orders to leave for the Coast. The captain and his wife will have charge of the Army hall tonight and tomorrow, Sunday evening Major Wood will be in command to welcome these newcomers to the islands.

The major intends calling a conference of workers together, commencing September 22. All the officers from the different islands will be present, and councils will be held daily for a week, with special demonstrations each evening. This will be the first conference held on the islands for two years, and is looked forward to with much interest and expectancy by the Salvationists.

MINSTREL M'ADOO DEAD.

Well-Known Theatrical Manager Dies in Sydney.

The following clipping from the Otago (New Zealand) witness, refers to a man well known in Honolulu:

Mr. Orpheus M. M'Adoo, who died recently in Sydney, will be remembered as the star of the early days of M'Adoo's Minstrel Singers and Virginia Concert Company, which toured this colony last year. Orpheus M'Adoo had a phenomenal voice, actually going down round and full in tone to A flat, three octaves below the highest note of an ordinary tenor, and fully five below the highest note of the highest set soprano ever known. The celebrated double A flat basso profundo, who was manager of the company, was a gentleman every inch of him, and although a "cruel" person was what is commonly termed "a white man." Mr. M'Adoo took over the personal management of the singers in 1909. Twelve months back he paid a trip to the United States, and organized M'Adoo's Georgia Minstrel and Alabama Cake Walkers, who made their first appearance in the colonies at the Palace Theatre, Sydney.

ALVERSTONE, PROBABLE LORD CHIEF JUSTICE

It is probable that the death of Baron Russell of Killowen will result in the promotion of Lord Alverstone to be Lord Chief Justice of England. Lord Alverstone is better known as Sir Richard Webster. Upon his recent appointment as Master of the Rolls he was raised to the peerage.

He is the son of the late Thomas Webster, Q. C., and was born December 22, 1842. He was educated at King's College Charter-house schools and at Trinity College, Cambridge, where he gained a foundation scholarship, and was graduated in both the mathematical and classical tripos. He was called to the bar at Lincoln's Inn in 1868, and was soon appointed to the ancient sinecure of tumbler and postman in the Court of Eschequer at Westminster. In 1878 he was made Queen's Counsel.

He has been extensively engaged in most of the heavy commercial and railroad cases of the day and has one of the largest practices in England, and has appeared in numerous appeal cases in the House of Lords. In 1885 he was appointed Attorney-General in the first Government of Lord Salisbury, when he entered Parliament for the first time. He became Master of the Rolls early in the present year.

PRESSURE IN SCHOOLS

Is Mainly in Primary Departments.

PLENTY OF ROOM ABOVE

Board of Education Hopes to Accommodate all Pupils by Extra Seats.

By putting in extra seats in the primary rooms the Board of Education hopes to be able to furnish accommodations for all children who apply for admission to the schools. As the Advertiser said yesterday attendance is steadily increasing and unless some measures are taken to relieve the overcrowding the Board hopes to be able to give accommodations for all by crowding in more seats.

The total attendance for the week as estimated by School Inspector Gibson was 276, and the total seating capacity in all of the schools is 3126. This would seem to give an ample margin for any increase in the attendance, but the figures are deceptive for they give the total seating capacity in all of the rooms while it is only in the lower grades that there is lack of space. In the higher grades there is room and to spare for all that may desire to enroll.

Accurate returns were received by Mr. Gibson from twelve out of the eighteen schools of the city. The figures with the total seating capacity of the school including all grades are given below:

	Capacity	Attendance	of School.
Pauoa	49	50
Maemae	129	129
Kaahumanu	429	429
Kamohili	45	45
Waikiki	68	68
McAnaula	32	32
Kalihi-waena	119	119
Kaulani	429	429
Kawalahao	66	66
Pohukaina	158	158
Normal and Training	300	300
Kauliweia	162	162
Total	1886	2241

The following table gives the estimated attendance at the schools from which no reports were received together with the total attendance in all the schools:

	Estimated Attendance	Capacity
Royal	178	200
Emma Street	80	80
High School	300	300
Kaakopua	250	250
Waipae	25	25
Kalihi-uka	70	80
Total	883	885
Total attendance	3124
Total capacity of schools	3126

"If we had as large a margin for increase in attendance as these figures seem to show," said Mr. Gibson, "we should have no cause for worry but as they give the totals including the higher grades they do not show at all how crowded the primary departments are. We hope to be able to seat every one, however by putting in extra desks and when the Aala warehouse is fitted up for school purposes we shall be able to take some of the pupils out of the more crowded schools in that vicinity and thus relieve the congestion somewhat. I think we shall be able to go through the year without turning any one away."

BOUND FOR CHINA.

Washington Youths who Spent the Day in Honolulu.

On the China were three young men from Washington, D. C., en route for Shanghai, where they will take positions tendered them in the Chinese maritime service. They were Stephen Denby, Jesse H. Wilson, Jr., and Louis Palen. The latter is a Virginian. Mr. Wilson is the son of the famous Washington attorney, Jere Wilson, while Mr. Denby is a nephew of Ex-Minister to China, Charles Denby. The Washington Star of August 28 has the following:

Quite a company of young men was present at the 6th street depot last evening to say good-bye to Jesse H. Wilson, Jr., Stephen Denby and Louis Palen, who were about to start for China. Mr. Wilson is a son of Mr. Jesse H. Wilson, the well-known lawyer; Mr. Denby is a nephew of Colonel Charles Denby, ex-minister to China, and also of Mr. Buchanan Beale of the local United States marshal's office, and Mr. Palen is a native of New York, but has resided for a few years past in Virginia.

More than a year ago Mr. Wilson and Mr. Palen, then students at Cornell University, were offered positions in the Chinese imperial maritime custom service. Minister Conger, by courtesy of Sir Robert Hart, who is at the head of this service, asked the president of Cornell to nominate two of the students of the university to such positions. The appointments were tendered to Messrs. Wilson and Palen, and upon their request the time of entering upon the service was postponed until October next to allow their graduation, which occurred last June. Appointment to this service, which is said to be established upon lines similar to the Indian civil service, is much sought after in Europe.

It is composed in the main of representatives of the French, German, English and American people, and the representation is sought to be kept generally equal between such representatives, and to this extent the service takes on an international character. Sir Robert Hart, about whom so much has lately appeared in print, has almost autocratic power in the service, and as he seems to have the confidence of the Celestials as well as of all the foreign powers, the present mix-up in China, it is thought, will not impair, but may eventually strengthen the service.

The young men left for San Francisco last night and have engaged passage on the Pacific Mail ship China, due at Shanghai October 2.
